THE AMERICAN-SCOTTISH FOUNDATION®

The American-Scottish Foundation is honored to have been invited to join the Landmarks 50 project and develop the fascinating history of THE SCOTS WHO BUILT NEW YORK'S LANDMARKS, chronicling the contribution of Scottish Americans to the building of New York.

The Life & Impact of Andrew Carnegie on the Building & Shaping of New York is the third in the series of talks presented by the American-Scottish Foundation.

The first talk was on Charles Follen McKim, William Rutherford Mead & Stanford White of the legendary McKim, Mead & White.

The second talk was on John McComb, Jr.

A fourth talk in the series will be on the Modernist Scottish Architects, leading to a Presentation in April 2016 during Scotland Week, as Scotland celebrates The Year of Architecture & Design.

JOHN KINNEAR

John Kinnear will present The Life & Impact of Andrew Carnegie on the Building & Shaping of New York.

Mr Kinnear is Principal of John Kinnear Architects and President of the American Friends of the Georgian Group. Mr. Kinnear has an architectural practice based in Manhattan, which undertakes projects throughout the United States.

The firm is noted for its historical preservation as well as new structures incorporating traditional design styles. Recent projects include the restoration of the Ruth Mansion in Delaware, 26 Commerce Street in Greenwich Village, and The Queen Elizabeth II September 11th Garden in Hanover Square for which he was the Project Architect.

The American-Scottish Foundation is an international not-for-profit organization, founded in 1956 by Lord Malcolm Douglas-Hamilton. The Foundation champions the extraordinary relationship between the people of Scotland and the United States – a bridge between the two great countries – seeking to strengthen and support the future of the Scottish American diaspora, and its legacy.
