The Burns Supper celebrates, in words and music, the immortal memory of Robert Burns and Scotland's heritage.

The first recorded Burns celebration was held in 1801, when a group of his good friends gathered – and so was born the legendary “Burns Supper.”

Join us as we honor and celebrate Scotland's national bard in words and music.
Reserve your tickets for a wonderful evening in true Scottish style and tradition!

The evening will begin with a Reception and Glenmorangie Whisky Tasting.
Guests will then be piped into dinner where a traditional Burns Night Supper will follow. The Master of Ceremonies will introduce us to the world of Scotland's most famous son. One of the evening's features is “Piping in The Haggis.”

With full fanfare, the piper announces the arrival of the Haggis, leading a procession comprising the chef, the orator and the whisky bearers to present the Haggis. After circling the room in order that all assembled guests may see the magnificent Haggis, it then is placed in position ready to be “addressed.”

Our orator, Kenneth C. Donnelly, Heralds the Haggis which concludes with The Address to the Haggis given with great gusto by Robbi Munro. At the appropriate time, during the line “An cut you up wi ready slight,” with a lourish Ken will take his dirk and pierce the Haggis, concluding with “Gie her a Haggis!” “The Immortal Memory” will be given by Bernie Higgins. Music by Callum Pesqua Quartet. Toast to Lads and Lassies and Burns musical tribute from Noisemaker.

Expect an evening full of music and featured entertainment. You'll enjoy the Silent Auction with many exciting contributions, and there will be Reels and Dancing!

Robert Burns is regarded as the national poet of Scotland and is acknowledged by recent public vote to be “The Most Important Scot” by the people of Scotland. Burns was born on January 25, 1759 and died on July 21, 1796 at the age of 37.
